Many people dream of successful entrepreneurship...of being your own boss with no one to answer to but yourself

Many people dream of the financial freedom that comes with owning a highly profitable business, especially an online business that allows you to work anywhere, at any time.

Many people dream of the freedom that comes with being your own boss, but most of us don't know where start.

The idea of starting your own business is wonderful, but also extremely daunting!

If you are going to start your own online business, you need to know where to start.

You need the advice of expert business professionals who have started one of more successful businesses of their own.

You need the advice of a successful entrepreneur like Todd Perkins.

Todd Perkins is a highly successful internet marketing professional who has developed a fabulous and highly effective system of creating and then marketing products, and selling them online.

Perkins has recently written a step-by-step business guide, called Bulletproof Business Blueprint.

*Bulletproof Business Blueprint is a training manual that teaches you how you too can create a product, then sell and market online to make big bucks!

Todd Perkins recognized that a major problem of many internet marketing training programs available on the internet was that they were too convoluted.

He recognized that since, by nature, most internet marketing training programs require the student to "teach themselves", the programs had to be as simple to follow and easy to use as possible.

With simplicity and user-friendliness in mind, Todd Perkins created the Bulletproof Business Blueprint.

This training program is made up of 5 sequential modules.

Module 1:

- Teaches you how to find and target a niche product.
- Teaches you how to effectively use social marketing to build an online fan base.

Module 2:

- Teaches you how to choose a domain name and really strategize the best way to market your product.
- Teaches you how to find amazing keywords.
- Teaches you how to create amazing sales videos that will get your product selling like crazy!

Module 3:

- Teaches you how to how to make amazing squeeze pages that will make your web traffic convert like crazy!
- Teaches you unique tricks of the trade, such as which colors to use to sell products, etc.

Module 4:

- Teaches you critical internet marketing techniques, such as video marketing on YouTube, Ninja marketing, and Article Marketing.

Module 5:

- Teaches you how to make EVEN MORE money online by showing you ways to amp-up production and production speed!

Todd Perkins has created a step-by-step training program designed specifically to teach the average person how to make money from home, by internet marketing.

There are no tricks or gimmicks; he does not offer a “get rich quick strategy”. Rather, Perkins teaches you marketing skills that you will use during your entire internet marketing career.
